

View this email in your browser

New Joy Arts

Serving as a catalyst of creativity & renewal for individuals & communities.

Thankful for a harvest of creativity!

This autumn New Joy Arts served over:

- 160 K-10th grade students learn each week through integrating the arts in the classroom at New Pacific Charter Schools.
- 20 middle & 40 elementary school students discover their social & emotional strengths through the arts in partnership with Folsom's Hope after school Stars Program.
- 20 residents in recovery heal through the arts in partnership with Powerhouse Ministries.
- 30 community members grow their creativity through classes & workshops offered in partnership with The Studio at Oak Hills.

Click here to read more about these partnerships & organizations.

There are SO many ways to impact our community through the arts & creative practice. Through consulting, coaching, partnering & teaching New Joy Arts is bringing the tools for meaningful growth to individuals of all ages.

GIVING TUESDAY IS NEXT WEEK!

Consider supporting the work of New Joy Arts this holiday season.

There are several ways you can support us all throughout the year:

*Participating in Paid Programing
Giving to the Scholarship Fund
Donating New or Surplus Art Supplies
Becoming a Monthly Donor
Volunteering at The Studio*

At the close of this year there are a few specific needs I am asking for:

A laptop computer (mine is 10 years old)

An 'art cart' wagon (mine is breaking down)

A tablet e-reader (for note taking & e-books from the library)

Student supplies (for The Studio & NJA partner programs)

If you are interested in funding or gifting these any of these needs, click on the items listed above or on the links below.

AMAZON
WISHLIST

YEAR END
DONATION

Monthly supporters make our programs free to all in need & paying participants fund our scholarship program. Become a patron & grow our resources!

Celebrate the season with creativity!

Flourish: A Creative Community Gathering for the Common Good

This month's focus is "Wholeness and the Holidayze" where we will be exploring how our personal values, creative practice and community connections combine to help us stay grounded in busy or difficult seasons.

Thursday December 18th, 7-9pm

*Hosted at Horizon Community Church
628 Royer St, Roseville, CA 95678*

Cost is $28 per person or $46 for 2.

Registration includes small bites, beverages & materials for creating.

More Info & Register Here

Want to know more about our programs & workshops?

Follow us on Facebook , Instagram or visit our website for current offerings & more information.

Cultivating Creativity with JOY!

Angela Houk

Founder & Director

New Joy Arts

